Professional Fees & Disbursements

Professional fees are the charges under the control of the Funeral Director. These include Funeral Directors' attendance to all arrangements, completion and delivery of necessary documentation, telephone calls, home visits and personal supervision of the funeral, the provision of a hearse, and a coffin suitable for either cremation or burial.

The conveyance of the deceased to our premises, full preparation, hygienic treatment and care of the deceased.

Disbursements are the third party charges paid out by the Funeral Director on behalf of the family while arranging the funeral. These prices are out of the control of the funeral director. Examples of these are:

- Cemetery fees
- Crematorium fees
- Ministers / celebrant fees
- Obituaries / acknowledgments
- Flowers
- Catering
- Keepsakes
